

NOMINATION AND REMUNERATION POLICY

This Nomination and Remuneration Policy is being formulated in compliance with Section 178 of the Companies Act, 2013 read along with the applicable rules thereto as amended from time to time. This policy on nomination and remuneration of Directors and Key Managerial Personnel has been formulated by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (NRC or the Committee).

Definitions:

“Remuneration” means any money, or its equivalent given or passed to any person for services rendered by him and includes perquisites as defined under the Income-tax Act, 1961;

“Key Managerial Personnel” means: i) Managing Director, or Chief Executive Officer or Manager and in their absence, a Whole-time Director; ii) Chief Financial Officer; iii) Company Secretary; and iv) such other officer as may be prescribed.

Objective:

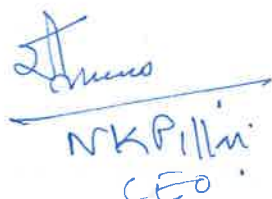

The objective of the policy is to ensure that;

- the level and composition of remuneration is reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate directors of the quality required to run the company successfully;
- relationship of remuneration to performance is clear and meets appropriate performance benchmarks; and
- remuneration to directors and key managerial personnel involves a balance pay reflecting short and long-term performance objectives appropriate to the working of the company and its goals.

Role of the Committee:

The role of the NRC will be the following;

- To formulate criteria for determining qualifications, positive attributes and independence of a Director(s).
- To formulate criteria for evaluation of Independent Directors and the Board.
- To identify persons who are qualified to become Directors with the criteria laid down in this policy.
- To carry out evaluation of Director’s performance.
- To recommend to the Board the appointment and removal of Directors.
- To recommend to the Board policy relating to remuneration for Directors and Key Managerial Personnel.
- To devise a policy on Board diversity, composition, size.
- Succession planning for replacing Key Executives and overseeing.
- To carry out any other function as is mandated by the Board from time to time and / or enforced by any statutory notification, amendment or modification, as may be applicable.
